The number 28 of the scientific journal Cadernos do Desenvolvimento, special issue on Covid-19 and the relationship between health and development based of the concept of the Health Economic-Industrial Complex (HEIC), proposes to examine the panorama of health in the Brazil and the development possibilities of this sector with a multidisciplinary and integrated vision. Published in Portuguese in 2021, it also marks the events of Celso Furtado's 100th anniversary and the 120th anniversary of the Oswaldo Cruz Foundation (Fiocruz) in an effort to think about science and the country in the midst of the pandemic in which we are immersed. This special edition, English version published in 2023, like the original, has 12 articles and a 1 special contribution, from 33 researchers, who under different perspectives find here a space for reflection and criticism beyond the of the pandemic moment. But from it.

So we welcome this joint work by the international Celso Furtado Center for Development Policies and Oswaldo Cruz Foundation and we hope that this initiative will strengthen the studies and debates in this field or research. Now available to a greater number of researchers around the world.

Enjoy your reading.
